

Directions to the Mühl-fun-viertel

By public transportation:

From Linz main-station:

Take the tram to Linz/Urfahr railway station at Kaarstraße. Take the train to Aigen.

From Munich main-station:

Take the train to Passau. From there you can take the taxi, take the train to Linz and follow the directions as mentioned above, or we could come fetch you.

From Prague or Budweis:

Take the train to Noveudoli and there we can come to fetch you.

By airplane:

You can fly to Blue Danube Airport Linz or Franz Josef Strauß Airport Munich or Vienna. From there take the train to Linz and to Aigen/Schlägl.

By Car:

From Linz:

Take the B127 in direction of Rohrbach, passing through Ottensheim, Rottenegg, Neufelden, Altenfelden and Rohrbach. Turn right in direction of Aigen. Pass through Aigen, Ulrichsberg and

From Passau:

Take the B12 in direction of Ilzstadt. After crossing the border at Breitenberg stay on the B127. After 4 km turn right, then left and then you can see the Mühl-fun-viertel to your left.

From Freistadt:

Here are two possibilities:

Either you go to Linz and take the directions as described above.

Or you take the B 38 in direction of Aigen. Pass through Vorderweissenbach, Helfenberg, Haslach,

From Prague:

Take the highway 4 in direction of Píbram. Change to Route 39 in direction of

Volary/Lenora. Pass through Strakonice, Vimperk and Strazny. Keep on that road until you cross the border to Austria.
